Tom Read Sensei

Chief Instructor of Northcoast Aikido
With Jeremy Wheeler Sensei, 4th dan

Please join us for a spirited weekend of training, kyu tests, dan ranking, and welcoming the Spring.

Northcoast School of Aikido was founded by John Thomas Read who began Aikido study in 1969 after a concentrated period of study in traditional karate. Drawn to Aikido as a way to deepen his study of Zen and meditation, he eventually moved to Japan where he underwent a rigorous tutelage under Masters Michio Hikitsuchi (10th dan), Yasushi Tojima, and other instructors of the Kumano Juku Dojo.

Jeremy Wheeler began training Aikido in 1998 and has studied intensively under Read Sensei for many years. As an offering of his practice on the occasion of his promotion to 4th dan, Wheeler sensei will lead the Saturday morning class.

Saturday afternoon will include ranking tests after keiko for all. Please join us!
